

ANN THRUPP
Sustainability Manager
Fetzer/Bonterra Vineyards
707-272-1152, ann.thrupp@fetzer.com

Ann Thrupp is Manager of Sustainability and Organic Development at Fetzer Vineyards. In this capacity, she provides outreach, technical assistance, and information about organic and sustainable farming practices for growers, wineries, government agencies, and the broader public. She facilitates communication and activities concerning Fetzer's sustainable practices, and organizes and presents seminars and other educational events on sustainability and organics. She also serves as a Consultant (and was formerly Managing Director) for the California Sustainable Winegrowing Alliance, a non-profit organization that promotes sustainable practices in the wine industry. She has a PhD and MA from Sussex University and a BA from Stanford University.
