Taste of Mendocino 2016: “Small Farms, Big Flavors”

Coming to San Francisco, June 25, At Fort Mason’s Gallery 308

Mendocino WineGrowers Inc. is pleased to announce that “Taste of Mendocino”, a signature food and wine event, is coming to San Francisco on Saturday June 25th, hosted at Fort Mason’s beautiful Gallery 308 from 1pm-5pm.

Mendocino – a wild, rugged and beautiful county, famous for its spectacular views and vibe, and loved for its vibrant food, wine and hospitality scene, invites you to come savor the flavors of Mendocino County.

Why “Small Farms, Big Flavor?” Because the average size of vineyards in Mendocino County is only 14 acres and these small, family owned vineyards produce grapes that are crafted into world class wines. Over 30 Mendocino wineries will be pouring their best wines, and artisanal food producers from Mendocino County will be serving up delicious samples to complement the wines.

Hosted by Mendocino Winegrowers, Inc. and Visit Mendocino County, this intimate wine event will showcase the people and products that make Mendocino County such a special place.

Tickets are $60 per person and available online at www.tasteofmendo.com
